2019 New Taipei City Graduation Exhibition – A Threshold toward Something Greater

Date 04/03-06/26

“New Taipei City Graduation Exhibition - A Threshold toward Something Greater” is in town once again! This grand graduation arts expo, staged in six of New Taipei City’s major cultural institutions, represents a group effort of our aspiring artists under the auspices of the City’s Cultural Bureau. This year’s program encompasses thirty-three dazzling exhibitions and one performing arts show. The artists will mesmerize you with their vibrant creativity, and color your summer with their youthful energy.

Participants this year hail from twenty-four academic programs of eleven institutions. Their works will be respectively exhibited in the following five museums and galleries. They are: New Taipei City Art Center, New Taipei City Yong'an Arts Center, FZ 15 New Taipei City Documentary Cinema, Banqiao 435 Art Zone, Tamsui Plaza, and Xinzhuang Culture and Arts Center. The shows will cover fine arts pieces, traditional ink paintings and calligraphy, crafts, sculpture, multimedia and anything in between. The climate in the showrooms is that of a confluence of creativity, made possible by the aspiring artists. It promises to be an artistic spectacle and a source of inspiration you don’t want to miss.

Treasure of Golden Mountains Exhibition of Shuijinjiou Geoheritage

Date Now Until 10/27

Venue Jinshuei Special Exhibition Hall, Gold Refining Building

The epithermal deposits of Jinguashi, Jiufen and Wudan Mountain contain the richest mineral resources in Taiwan. In acknowledging these natural treasures, the Gold Museum organizes the program, aiming to bring the broad audience of Taiwan face-to-face to the history of Taiwanese gold and copper mining industry, and the island's rich natural resources. The show, apart from an overview of the geological structure of the Shuijinjiou area, also showcases the unique and precious mineral resources of the region. The program also includes topics of scientific studies and the relationship between goldmining and humanistic development, and how the correlation was the foundational "root" for the past development of this mountainous mining town.

~~~~: Journey, Crossing, Swaying

Date Now Until 05/12

Venue The Tamsui Customs Wharf

"~~~~" is an intonation as well as the imagination of a figure, representing the Tamsui River in the eyes of the artists. Starting from the Tamsui River basin, the exhibition presents eleven patterns of Tamsui River to visitors. The flow of waves embodied in the artworks carries the history and cultural pulse of Tamsui and besides it responds to the Tamsui Customs Wharf that is from the same history with Tamsui. That romantic, overflowing, moving and prolonged state of water from the Tamsui River can hardly be described by words. In the end, the symbols of "wave" can only be used to give visitors a mysterious imagination which can only be understood by their heart.
