Cover Story

2022 New Taipei City Children's Arts Festival- Monster Universe

Civic Square is the New Outer Space!

This summer, we are turning Civic Square into a monster universe! We will build various "Dancing Planets" to carry out all the wonderful performances. The large interactive installation, "Bubble Planet," will showcase dazzling bubbles and magic lighting, while the "Adventure Planet" will focus on creating a Spartan experience to challenge your physical limits!

The "Dancing Planets" offers various themes during the 10-day festival period via splendid performances, your kids will never get bored! Yes, we want to show you different ways to see performances, such as our one-of-a-kind interactive theater! On July 30th, the Sorry Youth Ensemble and Le Petit Choses Production will team up to show you an unforgettable festival for you and your kids! On August 6th, our "Adventure Night" will be dominated by Swing Dance, their "Dance with Brushes" will make your summer night unforgettable!

On the "Bubble Planet," you will meet the "Bubble Exploration Team," this warship is designed according to the "Handsome Dog," which includes climbing units, slides and rest area. You can also occasionally see the bubble light show here, making our monster universe fun and dreamy.

On the other side of Civic Square, our "Adventure Planet" is a different world. Why not try out our "Spartan Training Ground" to test your fitness level? You will get to challenge your body and experience what it is like to be a Spartan adventurer in the space! Aside from the three planets, we also offer many fun and interactive programs for you to participate, such as the Farglory Foundation's art workshop in Civic Square, New Taipei City Art Museum's ARTGOGO Bus, and interactive installations on the ground floor of our City Hall. You will also get to see 2 large collaborative art installations near City Hall. Don't miss out on all the secrets waiting for you to unravel!

Let's Team Up and Explore Monster Universe!

On the "Monster Planet" in the New Taipei Gallery, artists Yu-ta Lin and Hsin-I Chuang have co-curated M Ê / M E - LIEUX SANS LIEUX. The exhibition and exciting programs will bring an entirely new artistic vision to you and your family.

2022 Walk, Pause, Look, and Listen: New Taipei City Public Art Walking Tour

Walk, Pause, Look, and Listen to feel our Public Arts

New Taipei City's "Walk, Pause, Look and Listen" public arts promotion project is here! This year, we launch a journey of in-depth exploration through 12 walking tours, 4 workshops and 8 lectures. You will get to see, feel and listen to the artwork through the guided tours. The tour will definitely take your "visual" and "auditory" senses for a ride, we will further explore your sense of "smell" and "touch" which will start up a discussion to explore the dialogue between your body and the artwork. Get ready to be inspired by our amazing public arts! It is our hope that through interweaving effect between "artworks," "location," and "community," that we are able to enlighten you to explore and discovery more about your local environment and yourself.

Learning through Aesthetics and Sensory

"Walk, Pause, Look, and Listen" connects 5 aesthetic foyers, which has developed into 8 tour routes. City Walk – Urban Landscape of Fuzhong: This route will take you through the public arts around Banqiao Station, introducing the 20-year development of these artworks and the cultural context of Banqiao City. Blue Coastal Walk – Historical Cultural Heritage: This tour route is designed according to the Danhai Light Rail and Cloud Gate Dance Theater. This tour will begin at dusk where we take a walk around the heritage museums to visit our public arts.

Rouge Treasure Walk – Sanying Cultural Landscape: This route takes you through the Yingge Ceramics Museum and the Sanying Heart Space Arts District. We also offer a rare opportunity for you to be the first to explore the public arts of the nascent New Taipei Arts Museum. Don't forget to register!

Goldmine Walk – Mining heritage: When visiting Ruifang and Jinguashih, you must see the land art that has accumulated from the Mine Art Festival for the past 3 years. Here, we will demonstrate how public arts can intervene with the local landscapes. Green Mountain Walk – Tea culture: Here is a challenge for you in Pinglin! We ask you to draw up a public art installation blueprint for us. Don't forget to draw inspiration from color, signs or anything you have picked up along the way!

Warming Up for Public Art Exploration

We have designed 4 "Public Art Warm Up" workshops to get you prepared for the journey. Our workshops comprise local culture knowledge, public art rejuvenation, reimagining public art, extracting local history and aesthetic elements, etc. We will guide you to adapt a different yet broader approach to understanding public arts and related discussions. Though these workshops, lectures, and programs, you will gain a deeper understanding of the values and spirits of public art!

No matter where you are from, you are more than welcome to pay us a visit and explore the depths of our amazing public art collection, we hope to bring these brilliant works of art closer to your daily lives.
