New Taipei City Art Museum opens on April 25th !

The New Taipei City Museum of Art, to fulfill the goal of being a "Museum for All," will launch four exhibitions during its opening period, including the "Coming and Seeing: Collection Research Exhibition," the "Radical Cities: International Thematic Curated Exhibition," the "Xindian Boys: Don't Worry, Baby" Annual Commissioned Project, and the "Naturally Nothing More Than This" Parent-Child Interactive Exhibition. On April 26 (Saturday), the museum will host "The Moment of the Future: New Taipei City Museum of Art Opening Forum," inviting local scholars and curators to participate. The forum will actively respond to recent international museum advocacy for social missions, sustainable development, and cross-regional collaboration, while exploring the possibilities for contemporary museums to promote social communication and transformation. On April 26 and 27, the museum will invite the Cloud Gate Dance Theatre and FOCASA Circus to perform live, along with other exciting performances. Additionally, a themed market will offer unique food, cultural products, and interactive activities for the public to enjoy. To celebrate the grand opening, from April 26 onwards, a series of events will be held in the outdoor area of the new museum every weekend for six consecutive weeks. The museum invites everyone to step into the new space and start a new dialogue!

The 2025 World Para Games will make its global debut in New Taipei City and Taipei City !

As the 2025 World Para Games fever sweeps the globe, the World Para Games Expo will be held at Songshan Cultural and Creative Park. At the first station of the Expo, you can experience hopscotch and sound level capturing, combining technology and movement to do sports cheers, while also undertaking the challenge of the para-sport of wheelchair basketball. Take photos with giant installations like the 2.5-meter ping-pong paddles and tennis rackets. Additionally, experience AI technology that combines sports and healthcare, showcasing sports analysis, smart wearable devices, and personalized health management technology. Traditional Chinese medicine techniques like pulse diagnosis and tongue diagnosis are digitized, along with heart health analysis, making it easy to understand your personal health status. At the same time, the Expo will showcase the glorious history of past World Para Games and a sustainable future for the Games. At Warehouse No. 5, the best street artists from Taipei City will create instant artwork through comics and sketches, allowing art to flow throughout the Expo. Creators will demonstrate their creativity on the spot, leaving unique artistic memories for participants. With over 50 stage performances over 21 days, you'll experience the sparks flying between sports and art. Limited-edition sportswear and customized souvenirs are available for you to collect, so that you can take home your own personal World Para Games memories.
